Situated high up in the mountains overlooking the city, the villa is a luxurious masterpiece with an impressive art collection, opulent furniture and fantastic spa facilities.

Distributed over five floors, the Chalet is a magnificent mountain retreat, conveniently located near the Savoy Elevator station and a short drive from Medran. The village is also easily accessible, and Place Centrale is a five minute drive away. Combining antiques, art and Alpine-inspired artefacts, with natural materials and traditional woods, Chalet is not only a vision of Alpine opulence but has a warm and friendly atmosphere, making it the ideal holiday home for large families and groups of friends. The chalet can accommodate ten adults and three children in five beautiful rooms.

On the third floor is the main living room, with a large open fireplace surrounded by cozy sofas. Overlooking the dining room, which seats 13, is an agricultural-inspired kitchen with a fireplace and roasting oven. Through the kitchen there is an enclosed pantry and staff area ensuring maximum privacy for guests.

Relax in the cedar jacuzzi

The villa is equipped with fantastic wellness facilities including a large hammam, shower, massage and treatment room and not one, but two outdoor Jacuzzis. The cedar jacuzzi, located on the edge of the outdoor terrace, offers unparalleled views of the village below and the Mont Blanc massif in the distance.

Other opportunities to relax are right next door in the TV and games room. Here you can play a game of pool or simply put your feet in front of the TV. There is also a private cinema on the first floor, if you can't decide which film to watch.

Five beautifully designed and furnished rooms

The main bedroom area is on the first floor with two double bedrooms giving access to the terrace, a quadruple bedded room and a three-bedded room, ideal for children.
