With a stunning setting in the exclusive Sonalon area of Verbier, Chalet offers spectacular views towards the towering peaks of the Grand Combin and Mont Blanc massif. Spanning four floors, this attractive chalet has 585m² of interior living space and accommodates eight guests across four luxurious en-suite bedrooms. The chalet is perfect for those looking for some peace and privacy away from the masses, yet Medran, Savoleyres and Place Centrale are all within a ten minute drive.

The second floor of the chalet is home to a spacious open plan living and dining area with a fireplace. There is also a well-equipped kitchen which can be closed off from the main living area. Floor-to-ceiling French windows open out onto a large wrap-around terrace where you can recline in fur-covered chairs and watch the sun go down.

Two bedrooms including the delightful master suite are located on the first floor. Both rooms can be configured as twins or doubles and open out onto the terrace. The master bedroom also has a dressing room. The top floor is home to a further two bedrooms - another twin/double and a double room, each with private balconies.

Guests return year on year to Chalet, and there is no doubt that this is partly due to the incredible spa. A haven of relaxation, here you can soak in the hot tub, unwind in the sauna or hammam, swim in the private pool with waterfall or head to the massage room to ease aches and pains. There is also a small kitchen and dining area here as well as a comfy cinema room where you can settle down in front of a movie.
