Alluring 5-star choice in beautiful village

A menu of luxury holiday St. Moritz Chalet will include the Swiss Alps, particularly the St Moritz region in either winter or summer. Those wishing to order up a holiday experience for family and friends can remember, forever, can now be served by St. Moritz Chalet. This small and refined hotel of great charm is available as a full luxury holiday St. Moritz Chalet rental comprising 3 master suites, 3 junior suites with double sofa bed and 7 other premium quality bedrooms. The other great advantage of this luxury alpine property is its location; situated in Madulain, a pretty and sun-drenched village approximately 10 minutes away from ritzy glitzy, busy St. Moritz. This is the smallest village in the Engadin, with a population of just 220 people. Here the traditional Romansh culture remains part of everyday life and the village is a haven of tranquility, within easy reach of the small slopes in Zuoz (3 minutes by car) or the larger slopes in Celerina a little farther away. Cross-country skiing and walking trails from the village connect to the Engadin cross-country network, which extends for 200 kilometres of trails. Pet lovers won't feel left out, as there is a dog trail between Madulain and S-chanf and pets are more than welcome at the St. Moritz Chalet! The hotel as a private home is a novel concept for the area and this property is an exception St. Moritz Chalet. It is arranged so that everyone can stay together whilst doing different things, as well as enjoying a good amount of independence. The communal living is arranged on the ground floor, where guests can simultaneously converse and have drinks served to them in the homely lounge with a comfortable white leather sofa, or do the same from the bubbling Jacuzzi. The fitness area and Jacuzzi are behind a curtain, but visible, and will come in handy; whether you want to lose some calories or relax after enjoying the admirable experience of gourmet meals prepared exclusively by the chef, along with wine of your own choosing from the quality cellar.

St. Moritz Chalet are a total of 13 luxury bedrooms en suite, all of which are located on the upper floors (3) and designed to sleep 26 guests in fine comfort. Every room is designed as an invitingly warm and comfortable space for complete privacy and relaxation. The décor is based around the rustic alpine chic of old wood walls and floors, while animal hide rugs and fur throws, under-floor heating and atmospheric discreet lighting add contemporary and a more international flair. There is no variation in quality between the suites and other bedrooms, only size. Some are smaller than those with a mezzanine and some have a sitting area with a sofa bed (suitable for children). This versatility represents a good range of options and the bedroom have suitably stylish en suite facilities that are presented in sleek combinations of wood, glass, porcelain and modern fittings. There is also a separate sauna and a hammam.

St Moritz and the Engadin is a notably exclusive all-year destination; carpeted with white snow in winter for skiing and lush green in the summer for trekking between lakes and forests. Now the area can benefit from luxurious accommodation of a high standard and set in one of the most beautiful and traditional Swiss alpine villages. It is a tantalizing holiday alternative to staying in St Moritz and a particularly fine choice for corporate clients, who will appreciate the exclusive and top-class service that is worthy of a five-star St. Moritz Chalet.
